

Museum Etiquette - Virtual Field Trips

Teachers – Please support your virtual visit in the following manner:

- Maintain virtual classroom management and remain present for the entire visit.
- Museum educators are your “guest” presenters. During our presentation there will be opportunities for class participation. Please call on students and/or manage chat discussions when prompted by museum educators.
- Prior to your virtual visit, review with students your etiquette and discussion expectations including:
 - ~ Recording Virtual Field Trips sessions is not permitted.
 - ~ Keep microphones on mute unless called on by your teacher.
 - ~ Use chat and/or hand raising to participate in discussions.